

Planetary Magic Principles

INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW

What is Planetary Magic?

- Magic with the planets
Magic: Conjuring spirits to change the natural world according to your desires
Planetary – you conjure the spirits related to the seven planets of the Chain of manifestation
- Planets – the forces that represent all the qualities of creation that we can experience in life
Saturn – Death and Occult Wisdom
Jupiter – Blessings and Expansion
Mars – War and Conflict
The Sun – Creative, Noble, Lifegiving Forces
Venus – Love and Sex
Mercury – Words, Communication, Business
The Moon – Nebulous forces of Waxing and Waning, Mysteries, Dreams

Chain of Manifestation

- Source of All, the Mind of God, Zeus
- Through the Seven Spheres
- Passed on to the Elemental Kings
- The Material World
- The Other Planets

The Other Planets

- Trans Saturnian Planets
- Spirit names and seals exist
- Not traditional
- Works fine without them
- Farther away, less influence, but for longer.

What makes planetary Magic different?

- Non-Planetary magic – gods or spirits conjured who aren't planetary.
- They have planetary correspondences too.
- Planetary is a way of classifying things by their qualities

Planetary Magic and Astrology

Planets in Astrology

- Tells you how those qualities of life will manifest
Venus in Aries makes your sexiness hot, but jealous for example
- Can learn a lot about the magical qualities of the planets from how they impact events astrologically

Astrological Magic

- Based on timing and elections
- Planets have certain potency and powers modifiers based on all the other stuff going on in a chart at any given time
- You put it together and say the words in a window of opportunity
- It's passive magic, receives the forces, the intelligences present do the blessing
- It's always a bad time

Our Magical Approach

- Planetary Hours and Days rule all
Hour trumps everything
- Spirits can be called on to change fate and perform miracles
- We use the bless the fuck out of it approach, where the gods and spirits we work with are the POWERS they represent, and are capable of slipping the forces of fate once in a while.
- Usually it works within the constraints of other forces anyway, there's a whole universe at play, and it's not all about you

How Magic Materializes

- Only provides influence over things, not full control
- Sources of creation, gives opportunities
- You must seize them and do things
- Get you information to do things, but doesn't do things for you
- Gates of manifestation, each applies traits related to its imagery, qualities of experienced existence

Materialization Magic: Basics

- When you want something, pick the sphere or spheres related to what you want
- Determine the qualities of your desire. List what you want. Pick the planets that relate, conjure the archangel of the planet
- tell it what you want
- ask it to make it happen
- make sure to ask it to do so in ways that you cannot miss

Advanced Materialization Magic

- For large projects you don't want to screw up
- Work with all seven spheres to get it to happen
- Take a more initiated approach to it

Initiatory Magic

- Supreme wisdom – Lay it on them
- As Problems Arise:
Problems in your life related to the qualities of the planets can be addressed by the planets related to the problems.
- An actual Plan
